LYRIC OF ACTION (Paul B. Hayne, was emphatically the poet of the South. Of late years he lived in rural retire-ment and wrote little. His verses will now be gathered together and republished in memory gathered together and republished in memory of his talents by his son, who is also a poet. We subjoin a lyric by Mr. Hayne. !

Tis the part of a coward to brood. O'er the past that is withered and dead;
What though the heart's roses are ashes and dust:
What though the heart's roses had dead.

What though the heart's music be fied? Still shine the grand heavens o'orhead, Whence the voice of an angel thrills clear on Gird about thee thine armor, press on to the

If the faults or the crimes of thy youth Are a burden too heavy to hear, What hope can relifoom on the desolate waste Of a leafous and craven despair? Down, down with the fetters of fear: In the strength of thy valor and manhood artse.

With the faith that illumes and the will that "Too late." through God's infinite world, From Bis throne to life's nethermost fires— "Too late." is a phantom that flies at the dawn

Of the sent that repents and aspires.
If pure then hast underthy desires,
there's no height the strong wings of immer tals may gain Which in striving to reach thou shall strive for in valo. Then up to the contest with fate, Unbounded by the past, which is dead?

What though the heart's roses are askes and dust?
What though the heart's music be fied?

Still shine the fair heavens o'erhead; And subtime as the angel who rules in the sun Beams the promise of peace when the conflict is

SHE WANTED TO BE REDUCED. Turning Hopefully to a Tricycle to Get Back Her Figure.

From the N. Y. Tribun A young man went spinning up Riverside Drive on a wheel, swung to the left at the semi-circle, made half a half dozen sweeping gyrations like a buzzard settling on a bough, and alighted sstraddle of his backbone-that is, the backbone of the wheel-so near the retaining wall that a little more momentum would have sent him headforemost over it. It all looked graceful enough to indifferent stocks and scions of old families rolling by in their victorias, carts and drags, but the young man's hair had hardly settled but the young man's hair had hardly settled back into place when a barouche stopped beside him and a sweet voice said:

"Will you be so good as to tell me, sir, where I can buy a trievele?"
The young man of the wheel gasped twice when he brought his eyes to bear upon the speaker. Age thirty-five, more or less. Temples, Rolls under the chin. Diamonds. Black satin. Yellow gloves, Bracelets, French beels. Coachman. Footman. Skye terrier. Weight, say 235 pounds.

Two hundred and forty-five pounds spinning up Riverside on a summer afternoon, ning up Riverside on a summer afternoon, mercury 100 degrees!

"I want something to reduce me," con timed this fairy. "Don't you think a tri-cycle would reduce me? Are they hard to ride? I wonder how long it would take me to learn. I see you ride a bicycle, I couldn't to learn. I see you ride a bicycle. I couldn't do that very well, but 1 do so much wish to get a tricycle—that is, if it will reduce me. What do you think about it?"

'I—a—really—I—a—think it might reduce one. But, pardon me, I—a—don't think that you—a—need reducing.

This gallant lie brought to the surface three smiles and a roll of the head.

'O, I must be reduced. I am resolved upon it. Why, I used to be so slender, willow, as they call it. I've tried everything to get back my shape, but all in vain, as you see. No more flattery, if you please. It is wasted on an ugly, old, fat woman. But where can I get a tricycle? I ride horseback every day, but it doesn't reduce me one bit."

'No? I should think it would—a—reduce the—a—herse somewhat." the-a-borse somewhat-

"O, it does, it does. He is nothing but a pack of benes," cried the fairy's companion. Age nineteen. Brunette. Tailor made suit. V-shaped shirt bosom. Enamelled studs. Standing collar, June complexion, Smiled at everything to give her pretty teeth a fair chance. Didn't require reducing.

"I am rather too heavy for poor Bucephalus," chimed in the fairy. "Do tell me about the triangle."

tus," chimed in the lary. "To tell me about the tricycle."

"Madam, go down to Blank's in Fifty-eighth street, ask for Jones, hire a pair of wheels for an hour and take a spin up Riverside just to see how you like the

O, thank you ever so much. I shall do that. Are you riding every afternoon? I think I shall be out on my try-my wheels, as you say, to-morrow. I do hope it will reduce me. It ought to do it. Good afternoon, sir, and thank you so much for your

The barouche with its fair burden rolled away. The wind came swirling up the road lifting clouds of dust, other vehicles dashed by the young man of the wheel, a New York Central freight train rattled along the track below, a sprinkling-cart spurted and squirted in the semi-circle, but above all the din there sounded one word in a tone hopeful, if pa-thetic—" reduced."

Politeness in Childhood.

The polite child is the latest in the juvenile world. She was strolling around the neighborhood on a tour of observation when she came across a colored man sitting on a door step. She stood with her finger in her mouth looking at him. Finally she said: "You're a colored man, ain't you!"

"You're a very polite little girl," he said.
"I'm a colored man."
"Oh yes I'm polite. I call every nigger I see a colored man."

who is suffering from aliments peculiar to her sex, dreading to go to a physician, but knowing she needs medical help, will find, in Dr Pierce's "Favorite Prescription." a preparation which will give her strength and new life through the restoration of all her organs to their natural and healthy action. It is the result of many years of study and practice by a thoroughly scientific physician, who has made these troubles a specialty. To be had of all druggists.

Typhoid Fever. Charles Hartford, of New Castle, Westcheste county, N. Y., suffered with typhoid fever and was given up to die. He was restored to health in one week by taking five Brandreth Pills every night and drinking pientifully of oatmeal grael. A few doses of Brandreth's Pills will invariably cure any kind of fever.

SPECIAL NUTICES.

" Grunt It Out." The above is an old saw as savage as it is senseless. You can't "grant out" dyspepsia, nor liver complaint, nor nervousness if they once get a good hold. They don't remove them selves in that way. The taking a few doses of "Burdock Blood Bitters is better than "granting it out." What we can cure let's not endure. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 157 and 128 North Queen street, Lancaster.

You Can Depend On It. "For severe toothache and Neuralgia of the haad I used Thomas' Eelectric Oil. This is cer-tainly the best thing I ever knew for relief of path of any kind. The house is never without II," Mrs. A. M. Frank, 177 W. Tupper St. Buffalo, N. Y. For sale by H. B. Cocbran, druggist, 127 and 123 North Queen street, Lancaster.

The Resurrection of Lazarus Was a miraculous operation. No one thinks of raising the dead these times, though some desperately close to death's door have been completely restored by "Burdock Blood Bitters" to genuine and lasting health. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 138 North Queen street, Lancaster.

A Veiling Baby
Is something to be avoided. Babies with colds, babies with croup, babies with scalds, burns, bites, aches, sprains, or pains are bound to become nelsy tenants of the household. "Dr. Thomas' Ecletric Oil" will cure all these complaints. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

A Pleasant Acknowledgment.

"Had sour stomsch and miserable appetite for months, and grew thin every day. I used Burdock Blood Bitters with the most marvelous results; feel splendid." Mrs. Joseph Johnson, Pittsburg, Pa. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

The above are terms applied to the unreliable and dishonest. Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil for diphtheria, catarrh, asthma, rheumatism, and all aches, sprains, and pains is not a thing of deception but a pleasant and honest remedy. It is honestly put up, honestly sold, and does what is claimed torit. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Laucaster.

CATARRH CURED, health and sweet breath secured, by Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy. Price 20 cents. Nassi Injector free. For sale by H. H. Cochran, Druggist, No. 139 North Queen street.

TIRED OUT!

At this season nearly every one needs to use some sort of tonic BRON enters into almost every physician's prescription for those who need building up.

Physicians and Druggists Recommend

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS!

AS THE BEST TONIC.

For Weakness, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, Etc., it HAS NO EQUAL, and is the only iron medicine that is not injurious. It Enriches the Blood, invigorates the System, Bestores Appelite, Aids Digestion. It does not blacken or injure the teeth, cause headache or produce constipation—se other medicines do.

Dr. G. H. Binkley, a leading physician of Springfield, Ohio, says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is a thoroughly good medicine. I use it in my practice, and find its action excess all other forms of Iron. In weakness, or a low condition of the system, Brown's Iron Bitters is an experience of the system, Brown's Iron Bitters is the Tonic of the age. Nothing better. It creates appetite, gives strength and improved digestion.
